

Que

What is E-Governance ? What are its stages ?
Explain its use value.

Sanskriti
Nema

E-Governance - It is the modern use of Information and communication technology for the better performance of the democracy and to provide better services.

Stages of E-Governance

- One-way communication - as the government provides information to the public.
- Two-way communication - as in this the government provides information as well as receive suggestions.
- E-Services and E-financial transactions
- Integration - betw Inter government and Intra-government.

Uses of E-Governance

- It is cost-effective
- Provides Transparency and Accountability
- provides timely delivery of services and saves time.
- Provides better integration and interaction.

Conclusion

It is for the betterment of the government as it provides timely and better services for the citizens for the interaction with the government. Some initiative also has been taken for the better development.